Title:” CONTRIBUTIONS OF GREAT WOMEN”

10th March:- Mrs. G.KALAIMANI-HOD,CSE DEPT

International Women’s falls on 8th March every year. It is a day which is celebrated around the globe with lots of love and happiness. It is a day when women get appreciation, respect and love from everyone. A woman plays very important roles in her life such as a mother, a sister, a wife etc. and fulfills all her responsibilities in every relation. A woman gives initial teachings to a person as a mother, so people give due respect to women in their lives. There are many women who have excelled in their fields, like Kalpana Chawla, Mother Teresa, Mary Kom etc., who have highlighted our India on the globe. They proved that men & women are nowhere different in any field of excellence.

By celebrating International Women’s Day, we recognize the incredible contributions that women have made to society, both historically and in the present day. We celebrate the awesome women who have broken down barriers and paved the way for future generations and we honor the many women who continue to fight for gender equality and women’s rights.

They have become incredible role models for our country and serve as an inspiration across countries, regions and generations.

All the students and faculties have participated in this event actively.

Title: "HEALTH & HYGIENE OF WOMEN"

13th March: Ms. ASRA JABEEN- H&S DEPT

International Women's Day is celebrated in many countries around the world. It is a day when women are recognized for their achievements without regard to divisions, whether national, ethnic, linguistic, cultural, economic or political. Since those early years, International Women's Day has assumed a new global dimension for women in developed and developing countries alike.

March 8th is celebrated as International Women's Day. This is to recognize and celebrate the very essence of being a woman, to empower her, to make her aware of her rights and strengths, to encourage her to lead an independent life with self-respect and dignity where her voice and opinion are heard.

The theme for International Women's Day for today is women's health. Women's Day celebration is about empowering women throughout society. It was discussed if menstrual health and hygiene (MHH) is well managed from the start, it has a surprisingly high potential to contribute to increasing female empowerment at a critical stage of a girls' life.

We raised awareness about the need for adequate and sufficient menstrual hygiene management for adolescent girls in colleges and beyond, and to advocate for breaking taboos and stigma surrounding menstruation. Educating students about the nutritional status of women, menstrual health and hygiene is really important.

Title: " WOMEN EDUCATION"

14th March: Dr. TOUSEEF HUMAIRA -HOD OF H&S DEPT

International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. Significant activity is witnessed worldwide as groups come together to celebrate women's achievements or rally for women's equality.

International Women's Day is a time to reflect on progress made, to call for change and to celebrate acts of courage and determination by ordinary women, who have played an extraordinary role in the history of their countries and communities. The world has made unprecedented advances, but no country has achieved gender equality.

Women play an integral role in the society. They are the backbone of families and are crucial to the growth and development of communities. Yet, for centuries, women have been relegated to the sidelines, subjected to discrimination and marginalization. In recent years, however, there has been a growing awareness of the importance of women in society.

Women are essential contributors to the economy. They play a significant role in the labor force and contribute to the growth and development of businesses. Women have also been proven to be successful entrepreneurs and are starting their own businesses at a higher rate than men.

Education is a crucial factor in the development of societies. Women's education is particularly important because it is linked to improved health outcomes, increased economic growth and poverty reduction. Educated women are also more likely to invest in their families and communities, resulting in a ripple effect that benefits everyone.

Title: "CHALLENGES FACED BY WOMEN"

15th March: Mrs. MUBEENA ANJUM-CSE DEPT

The theme for International Women's Day for today is the Challenges Faced by Women in society. Despite the importance of women in society, women face numerous challenges that hinder their ability to contribute fully. Some of the challenges discussed today are:

Gender Discrimination:

Gender discrimination is a pervasive issue that affects women in all areas of their lives. Women often face discrimination in the workplace, politics, and social settings, resulting in unequal opportunities and reduced access to resources.

Violence Against Women:

Violence against women is a significant barrier to women's empowerment and development. Women experience various forms of violence, including domestic violence, sexual harassment, and rape, which have long-term physical and psychological effects.

Lack of Access to Education:

Women's access to education is still limited in many parts of the world. Lack of access to education limits women's opportunities and hinders their ability to contribute fully to society.

Lack of Access to Healthcare:

Women often face significant challenges in accessing healthcare, particularly in developing countries. Lack of access to healthcare results in poor health outcomes for women and limits their ability to contribute to society.

Women's empowerment and the promotion of gender equality are essential for the development of a just and equitable society. Empowering women leads to improved health outcomes, increased economic growth, and poverty reduction. However, women continue to face numerous challenges that hinder their ability to contribute fully to society. Addressing these challenges requires a concerted effort from individuals, communities, and governments. Only by working together can we create a more just and equitable world for everyone.
